

Table of Contents

Introduction	11
Camus, Hegel, Luhmann (Reality and Mass Media)	18
Conditions of Our Age	24
Kant, Fichte, Heidegger (Image and Technology)	28
Black Mirror	35
Black Mirror's Basic Perspective	36
The Beginning of Black Mirror	43
Key Moments	47
Singularity	47
Multiplicity of the Levels of Reality	53
“Joan Is Awful” from a Phenomenological Perspective	63
The Phenomenological Method	63
Levels of Reality	72
Genius Malignus	80
Image	84
I	87

Interweaving Reality and Virtuality	93
Phenomenological Approach	93
Psychoanalytical Approach	97
Ethical Approach	102
Political Approach	106
Genius Malignus	111
Time	119
Time in Black Mirror	123
Different Time Spheres	125
(Eternal) Recurrence	126
Love	133
Virtual Love as True Love	135
Jealousy	147
Death	157
Dealing With a Possible Death	157
Facing a Death That Has Occurred	159
Radical Erasure	165
Nature and Law	169
Philosophy “Today”	173
Conclusion	181
Bibliography	187